

Join the Continuum – Please Help Us Rebuild Lives

Dr. Raymond Small had reached bottom. He suffered from the effects of mental illness and he lost everything, his job, his marriage -- everything. He was overwhelmed, desperate, and he contemplated ending his life. Then, he was referred to Continuum of Care. Thanks to the support he received, Ray worked hard and turned his life around. Now as a highly regarded emergency room physician, Ray is saving lives.

For 50 years, Continuum has helped thousands of Connecticut's most vulnerable citizens diagnosed with mental illness and intellectual disabilities to rebuild their lives and live in the community as fully as possible. Some were similar to Ray, where the onset came early in adult life, while others were born with the disorder or intellectual disability, such as autism. Some were veterans struggling with PTSD. Thousands have been homeless, and almost all have lived well below federal poverty level at some point in their lives.

Join us to celebrate 50 years of making an impact. Become a sponsor, and be part of the Continuum.

All proceeds from the event will go directly toward the care of our clients by providing housing, support services, home healthcare, outpatient clinical care, and employment assistance.

Guest Speaker: Liz Murray – inspiring author of “My Journey from Homeless to Harvard”

Formerly homeless, Liz transformed her life of despair into an inspiring journey of determination, hope and hard-won success. The child of drug-addicted parents who routinely ate from dumpsters and sought refuge at all-night subway stations to survive, Liz Murray was homeless at age 15—and fending for her life. Liz will take you along on her personal journey from street smarts to classroom triumphs. The subject of Lifetime Television's Emmy-nominated original film, Homeless to Harvard, Liz completed her degree at Harvard in 2009. Her memoir, Breaking Night: A Memoir of Forgiveness, Survival, and My Journey from Homeless to Harvard (2010), was an instant success making the New York Times' best-seller list the first week of release.
